

Art/ 19TH ANNUAL BUSINESS FOR THE ARTS AWARDS 2006

Work/

Colorado Business Committee for the Arts is proud to honor outstanding Colorado companies that capitalize on the arts for their innovative and creative success.

/06/

Wednesday, March 15, 2006

11:30 am to 1:30 pm

Donald R. Seawell Grand Ballroom
Denver Performing Arts Complex

For additional information or to purchase tickets, visit www.cbca.org.

2006 BUSINESS FOR THE ARTS AWARDS FINALISTS:

PHILANTHROPY AWARD

First Western Trust Bank
For philanthropy, community service programs, and contemporary Western art collection that foster Denver's diverse culture

Frontier Airlines
For strategic partnerships with the Colorado Symphony Orchestra, Opera Colorado, and Denver Film Society

St. Mary Land & Exploration Company
For their model 1% corporate philanthropy program supporting a broad range of arts nonprofits

INNOVATION AWARD

Continuum Partners
For their Belmar development, the creative hub for living, working, and shopping in Lakewood's downtown district

PianoOne
For their dynamic business model that uses creative insights to trigger corporate innovation and productivity

Wild Oats Markets
For their vibrant, arts-filled shopping experience where customers enjoy local art and performance

WORKFORCE AWARD

Barker Rinker Seacat
For company art and design programs that stimulate and motivate employee creativity

Cleworth Architectural Legacy Project
For architect and design volunteers from 22 local firms that support architectural education

Holland & Hart
For workforce development and volunteer programs that support employees and cultural nonprofit boards

WORKSPACE AWARD

Kaiser Permanente
For medical office design and artwork that helps employees and members THRIVE

McStain Neighborhoods Legacy Project
For their innovative, sustainably-designed corporate offices that promote employee collaboration

Zeppelin Development
For Taxi, a creative business community anchoring development of the River North neighborhood

SPONSORS:

ERNST & YOUNG

PINNACOL
ASSURANCE

KAISER PERMANENTE. thrive

ADDITIONAL THANKS TO:

Art & Anthropology, Inc. Corporate Express Colorado Data Mail Egan Printing Gourmet Fine Catering Willam Havu Gallery Hotel Teatro